BOY FALLS

Child of Nine Years Old Meets His Death in Uncurbed Well.

Well.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GREENSBORO, N. C., July 18.—At Jamestown yesterday afternoon, Fred
Brown, aged nine, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Pinckney Brown, while trying to draw n bucket of water from a new, unturbed fifty foet rock-lined well, caught bold of the rope to the bucket, just as it reached the water forty feet below and was plunged headlong down the well. The alarm was given by his seven-year-old sister, who was with him,
and in fifteen minutes the lifeless body
of the little fellow was drawn up from, the cavenous depths below. He had evidently been killed by striking the rocks
'n his descent, as his neck as broken,
end his head terribly gashed, the skull being fractured in three places.

TO REBUILD COLLIGE.

A large force of workmen began early this morning to clear away the debris surrounding the burned walls of Greensboro Female Collego, preparatory to active work of rebuilding Material for this is being placed on the grounds, and the devoted board of directors is assured by the Building Committee that the college will be sufficiently completed to open the next regular fall term on October first. Work will be pushed on the building from now on.

Mayor W. H. Osborn, who has been absent for some time at Mt. Airy White Sulphur Springs, recuperating, returned yestirday, very much improved in health, and assumed the reins of municipal government this morning.

health, and assumed the reins of municipal government this morning.

The Woman's Anti-Saloon League announced in the local papers Saturday that they had not contemplated erecting booths for the indiscriminate treating with food and temperance drinks of everybody on election day, in the prohibition contest here to-morrow. They will only have refreshments for those workers in the cause of prohibition who workers in the cause of prohibition who will be too busy to go home for their

will be too busy to go home for their meals.

PROHIBITION ENDORSIED.

At the "grand prohibition mass-meeting," in the Opera House last night, the building was packed with enthusiastic partisans for the cause, and short speeches were made by many of the business men of the city in advocacy of the prohibition movement. Rev. Dr. H. W. Battle closed the symposium with an elecuent address."

W. Battle closed the symposium with an eloquent address.'
At nearly all the churches yesterday morning, the ministers preached campaign sermons, and last night their consergations were turned loose to attend the mass-meeting. Rev. Dr. Dean, of St. Barnabas's Episcopal Church, had a large congregation to hear his sermon against the principle of prohibition. Things are getting hot for to-morrow.
